DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the Appeal brief filed on 05/12/2005, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. New grounds of rejections are set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

- (1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,
- (2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Claims 1-8 and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sarring (3,722,336).

Regarding claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7 and 8, Sarring teaches a transfer apparatus comprising a transfer element (1224,1294) configured to grip a sheet of material and move the sheet of material to a moving side table 1490 and a driver configured to move the transfer element at the same speed as the moving side table during a first time period.

See cols. 29-36 and Figs. 1-4, 27, 28, 38 and 39.

Regarding claim 3, side clamps 1430 are best seen in Figs. 2 and 34-36.

Regarding claim 6, the driver is configured to move the transfer element at the same speed as a receiving conveyor (1361, 1334, 1360). See Fig. 33 and section Speeder belt in cols. 36 and 37.

Regarding claim 21, the transfer element speed matches the side table speed between 270-310 degrees in Fig. 38.

Regarding claim 22, since there is no clear definition of a 360 degrees of the reciprocating motion of the side table, the Examiner defines the 130 degrees of the reciprocation motion of the side table being at 300 degrees in Fig. 38.

Regarding claim 23, the driver has a curved velocity profile. See Fig. 33.

Regarding claim 24, see Fig. 33.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. Claims 9-11 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sarring in view of Applicant's admitted prior art, hereinafter AAPA.

Regarding claim 9, Sarring teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for the transfer element including a shuttle mechanism. AAPA teaches the art equivalence of the belts and the shuttle mechanism. See paragraph [100]. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use a shuttle mechanism instead of belts to transfer a work piece to the side table since such replacement is routine skill in the art.

Regarding claim 10, Sarring teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for the driver including an epicyclic gear unit. AAPA teaches using epicyclic gear for changing speed of a conveyor being well known in the art. See paragraph [102]. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to include an epicyclic gear in the driver of Sarring since using epicyclic gear for changing speed of the driver is well known in the art as taught by AAPA.

Regarding claim 25, Sarring teaches a transfer apparatus comprising a transfer element (1224,1294) configured to grip a sheet of material and move the sheet of material to a moving side table 1490 and a driver configured to move the transfer element at the same speed as the moving side table during a first time period. See the section Transport mechanism in cols. 29-36 and Figs. 1-4, 27, 28, 38 and 39.

Sarring fails to teach the driver including an epicyclic gear unit. AAPA teaches using epicyclic gear for changing speed of a conveyor being well known in the art. See paragraph [102]. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to include an epicyclic gear in the driver of Sarring since using epicyclic gear for changing speed of the driver is well known in the art as taught by AAPA.
